

The Counselor Connection

SEPTEMBER 2021

This month's character trait: RESPONSIBILITY

So What is It?

Responsibility is shown by being dependable, having accountability for your words and actions, and making good decisions.

Why is it Important?

Being responsible is important because it is showing others that we are reliable and not only sets us up for success in school and work, but also helps us to build strong relationships with others.

How can you show Responsibility?

- Get your schoolwork done before playing video games

- Clean up your room everyday
- If you tell someone you will do something, DO IT
- Admit when you make a mistake - everyone makes them
- Ask your teachers questions when you don't understand. He/she won't know if you need help if you don't say anything
- If someone lets you borrow something, take care of it
- Do your best on each assignment or chore that you must do
- Take good care of yourself by eating healthy, drinking plenty of water, getting enough sleep, exercising regularly, and maintaining healthy relationships.

New to Home Education?

- Be sure to withdraw your child from their public school and choose "Home Education" as your child's physical school in his/her academic profile.
- Next, you will need to register your child with your district Home Education Office by sending a Letter of Intent (many districts have a pre-made form that can be found on their website)
- Be sure to approve your child's courses from your parent account. Click here for assistance.
- Please be sure to add your Proof of Residency document. For help, go here.
